

Carlos M. Brown
Vice President and General Counsel

Carlos M. Brown is vice president and general counsel. He oversees daily operations of the company's Law department.

Brown joined Dominion in 2007 as senior counsel. He was named director–Alternative Energy Solutions Business Development & Commercialization in 2013 and director–Power Generation Station II, Dominion Generation, in 2015. In 2016 he was promoted to deputy general counsel–Litigation, Labor and Employment for the Law Department. He assumed his current post in January 2017.

Prior to joining the company, Brown was the managing partner of Brown Martin PC and president and managing member of the Obsidian Capital Group LLC. He previously was employed as an associate at McGuireWoods LLP and McCandlish Holton PC.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in American government and African-American studies from the University of Virginia. He earned his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law.

In 2015, Brown was appointed by the governor of Virginia as the Richmond District commissioner to the Commonwealth Transportation Board. He also is a member of the boards of directors of the Richmond Metropolitan Transportation Authority, where he served as the inaugural chair; FeedMore Inc., where he serves as secretary; and the University of Virginia Richmond Ridley Fund, and a member of the board of trustees of the Brookfield Foundation. Brown also serves as the inaugural chair of the Dominion African American Resource Group.

